

Fashion forward

It's still c-c-cold, but most clothing stores are already stocking for spring. If you can't wait to warm up your look, here's how to wear three key spring pieces in the Minnesota chill and warmer climates.

By SARA GLASSMAN • Special to the Star Tribune

WEAR IT NOW

WEAR IT LATER

Photo by TOM WALLACE • twallace@startribune.com

CLASSIC SHIFT DRESSES

This mod classic dress happens to be in a rich hue very close to Pantone's pick for 2008's color of the year — blue iris. It brightens up almost every January-ravaged complexion. Diane von Furstenberg shift ($325) from Nordstrom.

WEAR IT NOW

Kjurek Couture coat ($280) from Cliché, 2403 Lyndale Av. S., Mpls., 612-870-0420, www.clicheminnneapolis.com. Loeffler Randall tote ($40), select Target stores and www.target.com. Michael Stars turtleneck ($49) from Nordstrom. Merona tights ($6) from Target. Boutique Nordstrom booties ($140).

WEAR IT LATER

Yellow patent leather bangle ($58) and white patent bangle ($68) from Nordstrom. Marc by Marc Jacobs shoes ($340), from Macy's Minneapolis.

More looks, page E8